ESTABLISHED 1853 INDIANA'S GREATEST STORE

Colored Dress Fabrics

Stylish Materials at Special Prices for To-day.

42-inch all-wool Cheviots, in twelve different colors, 50c to-day, a yard..... 50-inch all-wool Cheviots, in complete line of fall colorings, in an 89c quality, to- 75c day, a yard...... 54-inch all-wool Cheviots, in ten desirable colorings, including dark red, blue and brown, to-day, Silk and wool Crepe de Chine, 42 inches wide, 20 different shades, to-day,

Imported Zibelines, with a nap of short hair, all colors, in our $2.00 quality, reduced to- $1.50

High Novelty Suit Patterns, 12 of them in this season's styles, were $25.00, reduced to close $15.00 to-day, at a pattern.....

Sole Agents Butterick Patterns.

-West Aisle.

The Desire of Ownership

Is based upon unquestionable principles of soundness of judgment. Its possession promotes industry, thrift and independence and reduces pauperism.

MONEY TO YOUR CREDIT in our savings department is your first step toward ownership. $1.00 will start an account. Don't delay longer. WATCH YOUR SAVINGS GROW and

The Marion Trust Co. N. E. Cor. Monument Place and E. Market St. Hours 9 to 4. Closed Saturday Afternoon.

THE THEATERS

To-Day's Schedule.

ENGLISH'S .- "The Stubbornness of Ger ddine," 8:15 p. m. GRAND.—High-class vaudeville, 2:15 an 8:15 p. m. PARK.-"Across the Pacific," 2 and EMPIRE.—Burlesque, 2 and 8 p. m. UNIQUE.—Vaudeville, 2 and 8 p. m.

Rose Coghlan's Performance,

The readvent of the society drama, "The Greatest Thing in the World," at English's yesterday afternoon and evening, with Rose Coghlan in the role made famous by Mrs. Lo Moyne, was a warmly welcomed event and there was no sign of a falling off in popular interest, despite the fact that the play is now in its fourth season. There were large audiences present at both performances, and, although there is almost no dramatic action in the piece, the close attention of the spectators at the two presentations was held from first to last.

The play is entirely conversational and unless interpreted by a competent company could not prove successful. The present company, while weak in spots, was satisfactory on the whole. It is scarcely needful at this time to dwell at length upon the play itself, as the story it has to tell is familiar to most theatergoers. It is a welltold story of a mother's love for her two sons and her self-sacrifice for the sake of to be much enjoyed.

the elder of them—a morally weak young fellow, who all but ruins her life as well as his own. A wholesome play it is, calling for pretty sentiment, maternal devotion some rather long-drawn-out dialogue and mly one dramatic climax.

Miss Coghlan does not follow in the footsteps of her predecessor, Mrs. Le Moyne, but portrays the role of Virginia Bryant og to her own ideas. And it may be said at once that Miss Coghlan's interpretation proved in every way a very artistic those of the other actress, they are none the less convincing. She has made a careful study of the character which she asand at yesterday's performances displayed her best powers, her acting being of a high order of merit-intelligent, refined and always impressive. When the climax of her erring son's misdoings was reached, and the fond mother was compelled to hide the boy's degradation with a woman's skill. the actress rose to a fine dramatic height and wen sincere applause from her audience. Her facial expression, with its sugrestion of repressed emotion, was the work of a true artist. This is a scene that would be overacted nine times out of ten, bu Miss Ceghlan never for a moment resorted to familiar theatrical expedients. Next to the performance of the star, the best work of the company was done by ney Irving in the disagreeable part of the scapegrace son, Cecil. The character is one that most actors would hesitate to ertake. It repels sympathy and-what worse, from the player's standpoint-affords very little opportunity for effective acting. And yet Mr. Irving played it welletter than most actors could have played t. He made the role seem natural and showed much discretion in the reading of lines. Fred C. House, as the younger on. Harold, went in too much for farcical out otherwise acceptable, in the role of dian, as the principal funmaker. sarily melodramatic as David Mc-Farland. Margaret Dills gave a fairly good performance of the part of Helen McFar-land; Paula Gloy made the most of the ingenue role of Madge and all of the minor characters were in competent hands. The play was well mounted and the stage manement excellent. "Across the Pacific" at Park.

Big audiences yesterday afternoon and night yelled with hysterical delight over of the grand trustees of the order in Peoria, the stirring scenes and incidents portrayed III., where the headquarters of the union in H. C. Blaney's "Across the Pacific." which is on for a three days' run at the Park Theater. Blaney and his pretty little wife, Kitty Wolf, have important parts in the piece, and do some good specialties. ing. George W. Goding, of Chicago, was Years ago Blaney made a big hit with elected editor of the magazine to succeed Mr. Carter. Elmer Vance's "Limited Mail," and he is just as clever as he used to be. "Across the Pacific" might properly be called a military drama, as it furnishes a battle scene in which eleven hundred shots are fired, the most of them from a real Gat- to this city and was buried from the home tling gun, operated by men who have had genuine military experience. Notwithstanding that shot and shell rain furiously, only two people are killed, and these are the two vallains, who are destroyed in the last act, and it is needless to say that their corner of New York and Agnes streets, taking off has the approval of all the hon-est people in the audience. This drama terday morning for having a slot machine Willie Live, a San Francisco newspaper correspondent, and Elsie Escott, an eighteen-year-old girl, in the Philippines. Miss Augusta Gill has the latter part, and shows some skillful work in disguising herself as a boy and enlisting for service in the regular army. The part of the newspaper correspondent is taken by Blaney. There are some realistic scenic effects that pleased the audience last night. A government transport, the City of Peking, is a scenic feature. Troops embark on the trans-port, and it sails out of the San Fran-cisco harbor mid the music of a rough rider band on board and the cheers of the audience. The heroine of the play dons a soldier's uniform in order to be near the man she loves. In the Philippines General Lawton's headquarters is shown, and that brave officer is cleverly impersonated by Edward Buchanan. There is a block house fight in which the heroine brings reinforcements to the man she loves and enables him to defeat the enemy. The first intimation he has that his rescuer is his sweetheart is when, after the enemy has been put to rout and the day is saved, she rushes into his arms and becomes a woman again. There is a wronged woman in the piece, Frances Desmonde, who does the part of Nell Hazleton. She has some pretty gowns which she knows how to wear. In order to get even with the man who betrayed her she does many good deeds for others, and when she is avenged she becomes a Red Cross nurse. In the second act there is a Chinese restaurant scene that is well put on, and in it are some good specialties by Chinese, Johnny Williams and others.

Theatrical Notes.

Mary Mannering's engagement, which opens at English's this evening, is the one really important dramatic event of the week in Indianapolis. The new comedy by Clyde Fitch, "The Stubbornness of Geraldine," in which Miss Mannering will be seen, is said to be another very clever piece of theatrical writing by America's colors, street and evening prolific young playwright. In New York this play was considered the best of all Fitch's comedies, being better liked than "The Girl with the Green Eyes," in which Clara Bloodgood scored such a personal success and in which she was recently seen in this city. "The Stubbornness of Geraldine" is produced on a very elaborate manner. The picture of life on shipboard in the first act proved to be the season's greatest hit in a scenic way in New York last year on account of its amusing and original realism, while the scenes of a drawing room bridge whist party and the conservatory of Geraldine's home during a ball are said to be of exceptionally beauty and richness. It is understood that Miss Mannering's part is the best she has ever had, affording her much better opportunities than any of her previous roles. Local theater-goers who have seen this charming young actress in "Trelawney of the known plays will be desirous of witnessing her performance of the stubborn Ger-Manager Frank McKee has surounded the star with a capable company that includes such prominent players as Ann Archer, Isabel Waldron, Kate Lester, Carolyn James, John Craig, Louis Massen, J. Hassard Short and David Proctor.

Indianapolis will have its first view of Hall Caine's much-discussed drama, "The Eternal City," a week from to-morrow, when the play will come to English's for matinee and evening performances. The production, which is the original one made work for you as you have for them. 3 by Liebler & Co., is said to be magnificent, per cent compounded semi-annually. Read and the company, with the exception of our booklet. by Liebler & Co., is said to be magnificent, Viola Allen, is almost identically the same as that of last season. Sarah Truax, a emotional actress, is playing Miss Allen's old part of Donna Roman. Edward J. Morgan, one of the best young actors on the American stage, continues to appear as David Rossi; Frederick De Bellville is still the Earon Bonelli and Frank C. Bangs. one of the beloved veterans of the dramatic profession in this country, is scoring the success of his life, it is said, in the role of His Holiness the Pope. The cast looks to be very strong.

> The Grand has had a good vaudeville bill this week, but next week's bill promises to be the very best of the entire season. The Orpheum Road Show will be the attraction, and this combination has long been looked upon as the strongest vaudeville organization traveling. Here is the roster of performers with the show: Mc-Intyre and Heath, the most popular of all black-face comedians; the Melano Trio, famous Parisian musicians; Elizabeth Murray, considered the best of all singers of negro songs; Victor Moore and Emma Littlefield, two of the brightest farceurs on the vaudeville stage; Reynard, the famous ventriloquist; Alburtus and Millar, the clever club jugglers, and Professor Merian, who has some of the most remarkable trained dogs that ever performed behind the footlights.

> Last night was "amateur night" at the Unique Theater and a number of local performers endeavored to show what they could do behind the footlights. Willis, Jone and Miller, three youngsters of some talent, gave a sketch which included several imitations; Albert Butterfield came on the stage in an appalling make-up and gave what he called "chicken imitations;" the Powell Sisters gave a song and dance; Isabel Oliver some ballads; Arthur Williams was seen in contortion work and Carl Yeaman played on musical instruments. A large crowd was present and the show seemed

Harry Beresford, a star comedian new to this city, will be at English's next Tuesday and Wednesday nights, with a Wednesday matinee, in J. M. Barrie's delightful com-"The Professor's Love Story," a play made famous by the English actor, E. S. part of the learned doctor of science, who | ter of Mr and Mrs. John Ross, is a n what ails him.

The first presentation of the new historical play, "The Triumph of an Empress," with Mildred Holland as the star, will take place Christmas day at Bridgeport, Conn. The production is to be made by Manager Edward C. White on a very elaborate scale. The character of Peter III of Russia is to be portrayed by that excellent actor, James Wilson and other prominent players in the cast will be Hugo Toland and John T. Sullivan.

who wrote "Martha of the Lowlands." which Mr. and Mrs. Fiske are producing on an elaborate scale in this country, is immensely pleased over the result of the first production of one of his works in America. He had labored under the impression that Americans would refuse to become interested in a Spanish play and the success of the piece has proved a sur-

The Empire is enjoying prosperity this playing. The character was apparently in-tended by the author to furnish most of pany, an organization that is far better week with the Brigadiers Burlesque Comthe amusement of the piece, but hardly in- than the average company of its class. tended to be interpreted as such a brainless Next week the Empire will have as its at-youngster as Mr. House insisted upon mak- traction another well-known burlesque show Rob Manchester's "Cracker Jacks," with Walker M. Dennett was somewhat stiff, Bob Van Osten, a really funny low come-

W. S. CARTER HONORED.

Elected Secretary-Treasurer of Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

W. S. Carter, of Indianapolis, editor of the Firemen's Magazine, was yesterday elected secretary-treasurer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen at a meeting are located. Mr. Carter was elected to succeed Frank Arnold, who has resigned. The Firemen's Magazine has been published in Indianapolis for the past three years, its offices being in the Commercial Club build-

CITY NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. Benjamin Johnson, who died in Kansas City, Mo., on Nov. 23, was brought of her daughter, Mrs. C. Smith, 2108 Ash- of their daughter, Miss Eva, and Mr. Everland avenue, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Johnson was a distant cousin of former United States President Franklin Pierce. ett Marsh took place, the Rev. Henry W. Davis performing the ceremony. The bride is an accomplished musician. The groom United States President Franklin Pierce. Arthur Harmes, a saloon keeper at the incipally with the fortunes of in his possession, but the fine was remitted by the owner paying the costs and having the machine, which was valued at $75, de-

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kahn will return today from a short visit at French Lick. Miss Elizabeth Campbell has gone to Detroit to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Braden. Mr. and drs David Wallace are spending a few days at their farm near Cata-

Mrs. M. Mitinski, of Bluffton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raub, 2032 North Illinois street. Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Fitch, of Spades, Ind., will arrive next week to visit Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Mitchell Mrs. John S. Duncan and Mrs. Henrietta Stevens have returned from a fortnight at Indiana Mineral Springs. Mrs. George W. Dunn, who is visiting Mrs. Frederick L. Thomas, will return next week to her home in Chicago. Miss Cecelia Lopez, of Charleston, S. C., who is visiting Miss Margaret McCulloch, will return; home next week.

George Edwin Hunt will go to New York to spend the holidays with Mrs. Hunt, who is studying music there. Mrs. Frances E. Beveridge, of Mattoon, Ill., is the guest of Mrs. Horace T. Bennett, on North Fennsylvania street. Mrs. J. H. Walsh who was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mr. Michael Clune, has returned to her home in Detroit. rett, Miss Helen Kackley and Miss Laura The marriage of Miss May Seymour, daughter of Mrs. Anna Seymour, and Mr.

Harry C. Grafftey took place last night. Mrs. Frances E. Beveridge, of Champaign, Ill., mother of Senator Albert J. Beveridge, is visiting Mrs. Horace T. Bennett, 1718 Calbott avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Levy have gone to New York and will sail Dec. 1, with Mr.

and Mrs. Thomas Noonan, of Cincinnati, to spend the winter in Naples. Miss Harriet Mary Fitch, whose marriage and that of Mr. Leding, of Cleveland, oc-curs next month, will arrive to-morrow to be with Miss Lillian Mitchell until the

Miss Clara Hawkins entertained a fev friends with a theater party at the Grand last night in honor of Miss Lily Wilson, of New Rochelle, N. Y., who is visiting Miss Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miller announce the 2439 East Michigan street. The members of the Hope Circle will give an enterta nment in December for the benefit of the Door of Hope. The committee in charge of the arrangements includes Mrs. Walter Marmon, Mrs. Edson Wood, Mrs. Thomas Eastman and Mrs. Arthur

Miss Jessie Trindele, Miss Edith Chandler and Mr. Elmer Stout have returned from Zionsville, where they went to attend the marriage of Miss Blanche Alford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Alford, and Mr. John Cromwell Breedlove, which occurred Wednesday night.

Mr. Fern D. Miller and wife entertained with a banquet at their home, 723 South Meridian street, yesterday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. R. Culver, who have just returned from a trip to Europe. The was beautifully decorated with American Beauty roses and carnations. After the banquet was finished a dance was given! Thirty couples were present. The marriage of Miss Elizabeth O'Connor and Mr. Frederick J. Geile, of Marat the Ceatral Christian Church. The Rev. Allen B. Philputt pronounced the service and Miss Carrie Hyatt played the wed-ding music. A number of friends came from Martinsville for the wedding. After a short journey Mr. and Mrs. Gelle will be at home in Martinsville. Mrs. Emma Eckhouse was at home informally yesterday afternoon and even-ing for her daughter, Miss Jessie Eckhouse, and her fiance, Mr. Alfonse Wile, of New York. American Beauty roses were used for the decoration of the parlors and in the other rooms clusters of chrysanthemums and ferns were used. Assisting in the entertainment of the callers were Mrs. Joseph Eckhouse, Mrs. Gilbert Hart, Mrs. Barbara Sternberg, Miss Irma Rosenthal, Miss Stella Rauh, Miss Hortense Rauh, Miss Minnie Kirshbaum and Miss Bertha WILLIAMS-ROSS. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 26 .- At the home of the bride's parents in Highland Park last night Miss Luetta Jane Ross and Llewellyn Williams, jr., of Cincinnati, were married. The decorations were in green and white. The ceremony was attended by many friends and relatives from out of town. The Rev. David R. Love, of Frankfort, officiated, Dr. John P. Hale, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, of this city, assisting. Charles Wilson, of Indianapolis, a Purdue graduate and close friend of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Samuel G. Clifford, of Evansville, and Francis Jones, of this city, members of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity at Purdue, to which the groom belongs. Miss Fannie Williams, of Cincinnati, and Miss Katie Stranbinger, of this city, were the bridesmaids. Miss Maud Leith Ross was maid of honor. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried white carnations. The bridesmaids were attired in white mousseline and carried white chrysanthemums A reception was held from 8:30 to 10:30 and supper was served at 11 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Williams left at midnight for Cincinnati and will be at home after Jan. 15, at Willard. This is one of Barrie's earlier plays, and one of his best. It is said that Williams'is engaged in the publishing busi-Mr. Beresford is admirably suited to the ness at Cincinnati. The bride is the daughfalls so deeply in love and doesn't know of the Pickwick Club and prominent in so-

QUAYLE-TAYLOR. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAPORTE, Ind., Nov. 26 .- One of the most elaborate marriages ever celebrated in this city was that of Miss Helen E. Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Edward Taylor, and Charles Tod Quayle, a Cleveland broker, which took place last evening at the bride's home on Michigan avenue in the presence of 100 guests, many of whom were from Cleveland, Chicago Angel Guimera, the Spanish dramatist and Youngstown, O. The decorations were in green and white, the home being filled with Southern smilax and white chrysanthemums. The ushers were George Quayle, of Cleveland, and William Edward Taylor, jr., of this city. Howard Coles, of Cleveland, was best man. Miss Laura Seymour and Miss Lillian Taylor were bridesmaids and Miss Jennie Taylor was maid of honor. The flower girls were Misses Lelen Fuller, of Cleveland, and Marie Louise Taylor, of Laporte. The ringbearer was Master George Taylor Evans, of Youngstown. service was read by the Rev. Clark R. Parker, paster of the First Baptist Church.

> MILLS-VESTAL. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PLAINFIELD, Ind., Nov. 26.-Minnie Katharine, eldest daughter of ex-Representative and Mrs. B. W. Vestal, and Halstead Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Mills, were married at the home of was served immediately following the ceremony. Owing to the advanced age and illness of the bride's grandmother only the immediate relatives were present.

A buffet luncheon followed. After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Quayle will be at home at the Essex, in Cleveland.

WELBERN-GAUNTT. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARION, Ind., Nov. 26.-Miss Edith Gauntt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper A. Gauntt, and William C. Welbern, an attorney of Greenfield, were married this morning at the home of the bride's parents on Boots street, the Rev. Madison Swad- act upon the hair as a tonic ener, D. D., officiating. They left at noon for Greenfield, where they will reside. Both were graduated from Indiana University a year ago. MARSH-HAZELRIGG.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREE SBURG, Ind., Nov. 26 .- Last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Angus Hazelrigg, the marriage is a member of the grocery firm of Marsh

KNOX-THOMAS.

Special to the Indianapolis Journet. PAOLI, Ind., Nov. 26.-A very home wedding was that of Samuel R. Knox and Miss Margaret Thomas, which took place last night at the new home erected by the groom on North Gospel street prior to the marriage. Only a few of the relatives were present and witnessed the ceremony. The Rev. N. C. Shirey, of the Presbyterian Church, officiated. The groom is a ing a few days at their farm near Cata-ract.

Miss Lucile Williams is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams at The Delaof the leading merchants of this city.

Thanksgiving Parties.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Victor entertained a family party at dinner, and later gave a theater party at the Grand for their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bodman entertained a number of guests at dinner at the Columbia Club in honor of their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, of Toledo.

Dr. and Mrs. Junius E. Cravens entertained a family party at dinner, their guests including Captain and Mrs. William R. Myers and Miss Edna Myers, of An-Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Miller gave a family dinner of sixteen covers. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Greenhow, of Vincennes, and Mrs. Landers and Mrs. White, The Ku-Ku Club gave a theater party at English's yesterday afternoon, and in the evening gave a dance at the Brenneke Academy. The members of the club are Miss Zelda Ruhling, Miss Katherine Bar-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Van Camp gave a prettily appointed dinner of eighteen covers at 3 o'clock. The table was laid in green and white, chrysanthemums forming the floral embellishment. In the even-ing Mr. and Mrs. Van Camp entertained their guests with a theater party.

There was little general entertaining yes-terday, but there were numerous family parties given in honor of the day. One of the largest companies was that of Mrs. Daniel Stewart, who entertained eighteen guests at a family dinner. The table was adorned with clusters of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Good Coffee.

"Yes, honey," said the portly colored lady, "I'm a cook, I am. I learned to cook in old Kentucky. I can take good materials and I can make 'em into the best marriage of their daughter Gertrude and Mr. David Harries Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will be at home after Dec. 15 at

"Do you wont to know how to make good coffee, honey? Make it with cold water. When I go somewhere to cook a big dinner for a large company I grind my coffee and put it in the coffee boiler and fill the boiler with cold water, in the morning. Then I let it stand all day. A little while before dinner I set it on the fire and let it get boiling hot. I watch it while it bubbles up-under my eye-just three times. Then I set it off. And that is coffee as is

Language and Clothes.

Among the entertaining dialects of this progressive day the language used in description of the gowns and hats worn by metropolitan society constitutes an amusing and amazing chapter. From a New York newspaper of good literary standing the following choice costume extracts are presented in illustration: Miss Polly Vances's sleeves had let-out tucks and puffs, and her bodice pouched

At the back of the neck Miss Gladys | Crane. "I want a place to lay my head for Jones's jacket dipped; it was trimmed with run-in velvet ribbon.

Mrs. Wentworth Smith's bodice was a full, blousing one of blue silk; the sleeves were puffed, and had projecting over edges. Around the edge of Mrs. Sylvester Docker's skirt ran an applied flounce; above this ran bands of velvet, and above these velvet ribbon ran to the girdle. A lang black plume ran around her hat.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Brown's gown was clinging, and her bodice did not blouse. placket opening in the back was stitched in white, twice on each side. A rope-like chenille boa and a toque of black topped

Miss Eugenia Lee Simpson's exquisite white skirt flowed out beautifully from under the spangled trimming. A picket-fence arrangement of black bands ran half way up the back. * * * The sleeves were full Bishop affairs; and her hat was loaded with chiffon and incrustations of violets. Mrs. Clarence Patchington was frocked in plack and white satin. The skirt was one of the clinging, sweeping affairs; the corsage was round and only a bit low. An eight-inch sword, aflash with diamonds. was thrust through her lace front. Miss Eleanor Peacock's bodice was a lousing one of deep red. Her flare hat was of deep red, and her broadcloth long coat had flare sleeves. Ladder trimming and accordion plaits ran around the skirt, which

Menu for a Day. Suggestions furnished by Table Talk to qusekeepers of moderate means: -Breakfast .-

Fruit. Sugar and Cream. Creamed Eggs. Potato Cakes. -Lunch .--Sliced Cold Meat. McIlhenny's Tobasco. Squash Pie. -Dinner.-Clear Soup.

Turkey Croquettes. Cranberry Sauce Mashed Potatoes. Creamed Onions. Celery Mayonnaise. Wafers. Mince Pie. Coffee.

The Fashion in Hair.

New York Sun. The fact that hair dye is used more than ever is emphasized by the announcement that dark hair is discounting entirely the blond in fashionable favor.

"The woman with brown hair," said a French woman, "is making it darker, almost black, and she of the copper colored and auburn locks is dyeing them a deep Wayne; Prof. John G. Ewing, of Notre pinked taffeta ruches in the color of the mamahogany tint, which, according to a high authority, will be the most fashionable tint, in Paris and New York, this winter. "If cleverly done the mahogany shade is very effective, and the secret of its production is not given away by the hair dealers. "No one thinks of using bleaches and yellow dyes just now. For the present that fashion is quite dead. Where dye is used at all it is always a darker rather than a ighter color that is chosen. Black hair is "Comparatively young women, whose hair is beginning to show a few streaks of gray, are among our best customers, and they are many, for it is quite wonderful how soon New York women do begin to get the bride's parents last night, the Rev. Dr. gray. We have plenty, though, who from Joseph M. Dryer, financial secretary, W. F. Dell of Greencastle, officiating, Luncheon time to time change the color of their hair Fox, treasurer; George E. Finney, inside just by way of variety. And they don't seem to care a rap who knows it, either. "To get the best results bair dye should be applied, the first time at least, by a professional, and the more difficult shades. like mahogany and copper, need the most careful handling always. Some New York women go to the dyer or have her come to them regularly once a month, only the delicate process called touching up being done between times by their own maid. "Harmful?" echoed a seller of dyes. "Not | State Factory Inspector Says New Inthe best varieties. On the contrary, they

To Reduce Flesh. Philadelphia Telegraph.

The woman who mourns over her everincreasing adipose tissue may be encouraged to learn of a remedy devised by a very prominent actress, who declares that she has found an infallible cure for obesity. The recipe is simplicity itself, but is, unfortunately, also a little wearing. After dinner this modern martyr never allows herself to rest. She walks up and down either in the room or in the open air until thirty minutes have passed. She has succeeded in losing twenty-five Cal., where he had bounds by this vigorous method, and be- mother for his health.

MUSICAL GIFTS FOR THE HOLIDAYS

THE HOME ENTERTAINERS Hundreds of Music Boxes in a great variety of styles and sizes, from the celebrated Reginas that play a thousand tunes and sell from $8.50 up, to the little Swiss boxes playing a limited number of tunes and selling as low as 40 cents.

Talking Machines of every size with a repertory only limited by your own musical inclinations. This is one of the most popular of home entertainers. You may buy one of these beautiful gifts of us on small weekly or monthly payments.

Indiana's Largest

Music House

Attend our daily concerts. MUSIC COMPANY

128-130 Pennsylvania Street

at a dinner party, for she promenades quite as eagerly upon one occasion as another, and allows nothing to break the routine. At any rate, the idea is not so bad, and as it has the advantage of also being inexpensive perhaps some of the unfortunates may wish to attempt it.

A Former Indiana Woman.

Mrs. William B. Leeds, the wife of the financier, is to be one of this winter's hostesses. She has already made many friends at Saratoga, where she and Mr. Leeds were this summer. Mrs. Leeds is petite, with very delicate features. She dresses remarkably well, prefers tints rather than colors, and is an extremely dainty figure in or-gandie or any light fabrics. Mrs. Leeds, who is a Western woman, lives at 987 Fifth avenue. At Saratoga she was a great deal with what is known as the Hempstead hunting set, and among her friends are Mrs. Sydney Smith, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont.

Has Improved.

Miss Alice Roosevelt has improved very much in style within the past year. Dark gowns are much more becoming to her than the different creations, of elaborately trimmed white which she affected so much during her first two seasons at Washington. In brown, on Tuesday, at the horse show, she was in excellent form.

VETERAN SLEEPS IN CELI

OLD SOLDIER FORCED TO SEEK LODGING FOR THE NIGHT.

Col. Burbank, Once a Well-to-Do Cali fornian, Appeals to Desk Sergeant-A Pathetic Story.

"I am Colonel Burbank, of the First California Cavalry," said an old soldier, as he walked into the police station yesterday afternoon and extended his one remaining arm-his right one was missing-to Sergeant

In that way an old soldier, bearing the scars of many battles, was forced to seek shelter from the piercing cold of Thanksgiving evening and big tears came into his eyes as he told the story of his misfortunes. He said that he lives in California and had been in business there until a few years ago, when he met with financial reverses that forced him to seek shelter in a soldiers' home. His son, he said, a wellto-do man, was at one time mayor of Sacramento, but family differences caused a sep-aration of father and son which barred him from asking aid of his own people. A year ago he came to Indiana to visit a relative and instead of returning to his native State he took refuge in the Soldiers' Home at Marion. He came to Indianapolis several days ago to make some purchases and to look up some old army comrades whom he heard were living in this city. He spent all of his money or lost it and failed to locate his friends. "On Thanksgiving night," he said, "I am forced to do something which I have never done before, ask for alms.", Sergeant Crane called a bicycleman and found the aged soldier quarters for the night.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

THE MAYORS OF TWO IMPORTANT INDIANA CITIES INITIATED.

Class Includes Men from Indiana Kentucky and Tennessee Towns-Luncheon and Reception.

annual exemplification of the fourth degree of their order at the Propylaeum last night. liceman, who, in spite of his pleas, dragged C. A. O'Connor, master of the districts of him to the police station and caused his Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee, was in charge of the work and was assisted by a circumstances and the Charity Organizadegree corps composed of A. M. Sweeney, Rev. Joseph F. Byrne, Joseph A. McGowan, Capt. C. E. Murphy, Bernard A. Korbly, Edward D. Clancy and Bernard F. McCloskey. There were introduced into the mysteries 175 candidates and the cities reprewere Indianapolis, Marion, South sented Bend, Evansville, Peru, Terre Haute, Elwood, Anderson, Richmond, Muncie, favette. Fort Wayne and Vincennes, in this State; Louisville, Ky., and Nashville, Chattanooga and Memphis, Tenn.

Among the most prominent men who were nitiated were Edward J. Fogarty, mayor of South Bend; H. C. Berghoff, mayor of Fort Purdue University, and a number of emiand Tennessee.

for the initiates. The reception committee consisted of W. F. Mooney, chairman, E. J. O'Reilly, E. W. Finger, E. O. Langen, and which are joined beneath the deep hems the Terre Haute and Lafayette members of The committee on the hall arrangements consisted of W. F. Fox, chairman, John R. Welch, E. C. Gramling, George E. Finney and Thomas A. Lavell, of Anderson. The officers of the local assembly of the Knights are C. A. O'Conner, chairman; Dr.

sentinel, and E. C. Gramling, outside sen-One of the most prominent officers of the order from a foreign State present at the initiation was W. F. Bryan, of Nashville, district deputy of the State of Tennessee.

COAL REGIONS BENEFIT.

dustries Find Homes There.

In his report for 1903 the state factory inspector will show that the coal regions of the State have especially benefited in the way of receiving new industries. Terre Haute and Vincennes have received the most. The inspector thinks that the coal regions present the most logical place for by gathers. an industry to find a home.

Death of Robert M. Wulsin.

Word was received here yesterday of the death of Robert M. Wulsin, the fifteenyear-old son of Cecelia Mansur Wulsin and the late Clarence Wulsin, at San Francisco. Cal., where he had been taken by his lieves that she can still reduce by per-sistently keeping at her exercise. As she is most conscientious in following her own rules, she is rather an embarrassing guest

The funeral will be held here next Satur-day afternoon on the arrival of the body from Chicago. The interment will be at Crown Hill and will be private.

The R. W. Furnas Ice Cream Company

THE O. P. MORTON CLUB ENTERL

TAINS ITS FRIENDS.

Social Event Well Attended as Usual -Programme of Songs and Recitations-Dance Given.

The O. P. Morton Club, at Shelby street and Cottage avenue, gave an entertainment last night in the form of a New England supper. About this time each year this club announces a social event, and they are always well attended. These entertainments have no political significance. The managers of the club had arranged a programme of specialties which proved highly pleasing. Among those who took part were Mr. and Mrs. Herman Frey, the latter giving a piano solo and Mr. Frey reciting the poem, "When the Frost Is On the Punkin," etc. Miss Nellie Allison gave a cakewalk and sang "I've Got My Eyes on You," and her father, Captain Allison, gave one or two recitations. John Clancy appeared in a monologue. George Streble sang a baritone solo and responded to an encore. A climax to the programme was an original poem recited by Harry Hub-The entertainment wound up with a dance in the assembly room. STOLE TO WARM FAMIL

HAMILTON PRICE FORCED TO CRIME

Wife and Children Go Hungry or

Thanksgiving Day-Coal Taken

BY DESTITUTION.

from C., H. & D. Yards. Hamilton Price, 1806 McCormick street, was arrested last night for stealing a small handful of coal from a car in the yards of the C., H. & D. Railroad. He was forced to steal the coal to keep his family from suffering, he said. He told a tale of misfortune to justify his act, and his misery at being locked up on a charge of petit larceny was affecting. Until three months ago he was a brakeman on the C., H. & D. Railroad, but he was stricken with typhoid fever and his few earnings were eaten up before he recovered from his illness. When he was again able to resume his duties on the railroad he found that his position had been filled and he was unable for several days to find employment. Some time ago he went to work for Kingan & Co., but his earnings were small and his family large, and his income was insufficient to provide for the necessities of his home. Last week he was compelled, on account of sickness, to stop working, and the few pennies he had managed to save fast disappeared. Yesterday, Thanksgiving, his family went hun-The Knights of Columbus gave their first | gry and he was compelled to steal a little coal in order to warm up his humble home. He was caught in the act by a railroad po detainment under a charge of petit larceny. The man's family, it is said, is in destitute tion will be asked to-day to provide for

HOME DRESSMAKING HINTS.

By MAY MANTON. Skirts made with wide tuck effects are among the latest and most graceful shown and are peculiarly well suited to the many thin and soft materials of the season. This one is made of pale green eolienne with the front gore of cream lace, and trimming of Dame University, who is the state deputy terial, but it is suited to innumerable other fabrics and combinations. The full length nent clergymen from Indiana, Kentucky gore is specially desirable inasmuch as it and Tennessee. At the conclusion of the ceremonies an slenderness, and the sides and back provide elaborate luncheon and reception was given | the soft folds demanded by present styles.

22 to 30 Walst

that simulate tucks and that meet at the center back. The fullness over the hips is held by short tuck darts, but at the back The quantity of material required for the medium size is 91/2 yards 21, 8 yards 27 or 51/4 yards 44 inches wide, with 11/4 yards of allover lace for front gore. The pattern 4585 is cut in sizes for a 32. 36, 38 and 40-inch bust measure.

PATTERN COUPON. patterns of garment illustrated above send 10 cents (coin or stamps.)
Cut out illustration and inclose it in letter.
Write your name and address distinctly and state number and size wanted. Address
Pattern Dept., The Journal,
Indianapolis, Ind.

Allow one week for return of pattern.

ENGLAND SUPPER Accordion Dress Plaitings SUN BURST AND KNIFE

ACCORDION PLAITING CO. Mrs. M. C. Page Room 8 Odd Fellows' Bidg., Penn. & Wash. Sts

Tel. Main 2347.

"ABSORBO" Carpet Cleaner-Cleans Everything

THE HYGIENE CO., 128 Virginia Ave, Gift Umbrellas and Canes The most complete and exclusive assort-

-Manufactured by-ment in the city. Handles from all parts of the world. The Davis Umbrella Store

13 North Pennsylvania St. 4 Doors North of Washington Street.

Social Events

of the City, State and Nation Make an interesting page in the Indianapolis Morning

Sunday's Journal contains several pages devoted to this matten. with an excellently illustrated fashion feature, in which is included an exclusive pattern department and a column of local

BE SURE YOU SEE IT

shop news : | | | | | |

Order by phone 238 or from any of our agents. In Indianapolis and suburbs:

Daily and Sunday, 50c a month or 12c a week; daily only, 40c a month or 10c a week; Sunday only, 5c per copy. Elsewhere: Daily, 10c a week; Sunday, 5c extra.

8 Pages in Colors

Every Sunday

SEALS, STENCILS AND STAMPS MAYER, SEALS,

STENCILS STAMPS

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION Annual Meeting Will Begin at the

First Baptist Church To-Day. The annual Marion county Sunday-school convention will convene to-day at the First Baptist Church. Afternoon and evening sessions will be held to-day, for which excellent programmes have been arranged. The sessions will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon and at 7:45 this evening. Tomorrow's sessions will be held at 9:45 o'clock in the morning and at 1:30 in the afternoon. O. M. Pruitt, of Indianapolis, in president of the association. The meetings of the convention will be presided over by the county president, O. M. Pruitt. The general topic of the session this afternoon will be "The Sunday-school Association." Two addresses will be delivered, one on "The Organized Work; Its Aims and Benefits," by the Rev. F. W. Halpenny, general secretary of the State Sunday-school Association; the other on "The Sunday-school Syndicate in Marion County," by Mr. W. C. Hall, president of the State Sunday-school Association. The meeting will close with the appointment of committees and the reports of the work by townships and districts. To-n ght's meeting will consist of fiveminute talks by the following prominent members of the association: Coffin, James H. Ogden, the Rev. Austin Hunter, Prof. J. M. Dungan, F. F. McCrea and A. K. Hollowell. An address will be given by the Rev. C. B. Newman, pastor of the Third Christian Church, his subject being "The Sunday School as an Instrument of Evangelism." A special praise service will be led by Rev. T. J. Villers, pastor of the First Baptist Church. To-morrow's sessions will be for teachers and Sunday-school officers. This morning session will include two addresses, "The Book We Teach," by Judge J. W. Thompson, and "The Child in the Midst," by Rev. E. W. Halpenny. A round-table conference, the subject of which will be "The Sunday-school Teacher," will be conducted by Charles F. Coffin, beginning at 11 o'clock, The principal address of the afternoon session will be by Mrs. E. W. Halpenny, state primary superintendent, on "The Primary Teachers' Needs." Another roundtable conference will be held at 1:45 o'clock. It will be on the subject, "The Sunday-school Superintendent," and will be led by E. P. Matthews. The convention will close with the reports of committees and the election of officers.